

Elevated high above Central Park on the 52nd floor, the stylish Oriental Suite's exquisite details come second to its sweeping views of the park, Hudson River and the Manhattan skyline. The suite's four-rooms are adorned with a rich chocolate, black and gold palate designed to sparkle as you watch the sun moves east to west over the Manhattan island.

The Oriental Suite features large master bedroom and bathroom with separate walk-in closet, living area, dining area, and a separate study that can double as an entertainment center or work space. Designer kitchen includes custom Italian cabinets, granite countertops and flooring. State-of-the-art Bang & Olufsen entertainment technology is installed throughout the suite, delivering the ultimate audio and visual experience. The in-room iPad controls the suites environment from lighting and shades to the iPod and DVD player.
